

Kevin Harrington - Seasoned Business Leader & Toastmasters Trainer

With ten years of Toastmasters experience and a distinguished business career, I help clubs and members excel through strategic growth, effective leadership, and compelling communication.

Toastmasters Leadership: Four-time President (including Reading Speakers Club 2023-2025), Area Director 2025-2026, VPE, and VPM. Achieved ACB, CL, Presentation Mastery Levels 1-4, and Engaging Humor Level 1. I'm passionate about developing fellow Toastmasters' leadership potential and speaking skills.

Professional Expertise: As a Business Architect specialising in SME succession planning, former CMO of AIM-listed technology company The Panoply, and Chief Commercial Officer at Tungsten Network, I bring 25+ years of leadership across technology, marketing, and business development. My executive education from Kellogg, Cranfield, and Ashridge enhances my training delivery.

Training & Communication: Published author ("Testing 1212"), podcast host at ExitInsights.co.uk, and marketing blogger. I deliver engaging presentations, webinars, and training sessions combining business acumen with proven Toastmasters methodologies.

Areas of Expertise:

- Club growth strategies and member retention
- Executive leadership development for Presidents, VPEs, VPMs
- Public speaking mastery and presentation skills
- Contest coaching and mentorship
- Strategic planning and organisational development

I'm committed to helping D91 members achieve their communication and leadership ambitions through practical, results-driven training that combines real-world business experience with Toastmasters excellence.
