Greetings!

The summer is coming to a close and whilst we were all enjoying the crazy UK weather of torrential rain and outstanding sunshine in the UK, our District Leadership Trio were busy in Denver at the Toastmasters convention.

Not only did they have the great opportunity to see the Finals of the International Speech Contest but they were also picking up a number of awards for 2018/2019 year, more of which later.

Toastmaster World Champion

As we begin our contest season why not watch Aaron Beverly from Philadelphia deliver his Toastmaster International Contest winning speech.

Dan Macgill - from Novice to District Winner

In August 2017 I signed the forms to become a member of Croydon Communicators and informed the Club President, Mike Majuru, that I wanted to give my first speech at the next meeting.

I'd never spoken in public before and was terrified beyond belief. "Ah, that's our Humorous Speech Contest night." Mike said. "Not to worry, I'll wait until the meeting after that." "Unless, you'd like to take part?"

Well, it didn't really make much difference to me whether I gave my first speech in a contest or on a regular club night. Either way I was going to spend every waking (and sleeping) moment, dreading it.

So I agreed.

A Toastmasters journey from Peru to Bromley

After nearly 20 years away from the corporate world, Deborah Goodham Toastmaster at Bromley Speakers embraces the role of Vice President Public Relations.

Deborah Goodman, worked in the Telecoms industry for 23 years before leaving the corporate world behind her in 2000 to pursue her passion in holistic therapy.

"I really thought I'd left this kind of work behind me," Deborah said, "but I am finding that this new role has ignited a spark in me and I'm eager to get my teeth into it."
