D91 Spring Conference

This year's extravaganza is being held at the prestigious Hilton Hotel from Friday 1st May to Sunday 3rd. It is going to be a weekend of outstanding workshops, a gala dinner as well as the District final for all four contests – the highlight being the International Speech Contest on Saturday afternoon.

Another highlight will be the District Council where the incoming District Leadership Team will be voted for and presented to the members.

Tickets are now on sale and over the next few weeks, the Conference Team will be revealing the workshops and the keynote speakers as they are confirmed, however, the cream of speakers, trainers and coaches will be handpicked to provide the most exciting District Conference ever.

Don't Miss Out

The end of the program year is quickly approaching, and with it, the end of traditional education program. If you haven't yet registered for your Pathway now is a good time to start thinking about which Pathway you want to take. Choose your Path today.

Don't forget that all traditional education awards must be submitted on Toastmasters International by 30th June to earn your credit. After 30th June no traditional education awards will be recognised.

If you need any help reach out to your Club Vice President of Education.
